

National Microschooling Center Membership Policy

Membership Eligibility:

Membership with the National Microschooling Center is exclusively open to currently operating microschools and those in the prelaunch phase. Our community is designed to support the growth, success, and sustainability of microschools, providing a range of benefits to our members.

Membership Benefits:

By joining the National Microschooling Center, members receive the following benefits:

- Question Priority: Members will receive priority when posing questions during Center trainings, ensuring they get the support they need promptly.
- Special Access: Exclusive access to our communities of practice, offering a space for collaboration, support, and knowledge sharing among fellow microschool operators.
- Learning Tool Program: Members have access to our curated learning tool program designed to enhance microschool operations and student outcomes.
- Regulatory Support: Our team provides support and guidance to members experiencing regulatory pushback, helping to navigate challenges and advocating for best practices.
- Additional Resources: Access to other tools, resources, and materials developed by the National Microschooling Center to aid in the successful operation of member microschools.

Membership Discretion:

The National Microschooling Center reserves the right to deny or revoke membership at its sole discretion at any time. Membership is a privilege, and all members are expected to uphold the values and guidelines set forth by the Center.

Confidentiality and Usage Restrictions:

Content within members-only areas is confidential and may not be shared with any non-member individual or organization. This includes, but is not limited to, resources, training materials, strategic frameworks, and community discussions.

Recording Policy:

Recording of meetings, trainings, or any other events hosted by the Center is strictly prohibited unless prior approval has been granted by Center management. This ensures the privacy and integrity of our community and the information shared within.

Legal Disclaimer:

The strategies, analyses, frameworks, and any other information provided by the National Microschooling Center are intended for informational purposes only and do not constitute legal advice. Members should seek independent legal counsel as needed for their specific situations.

By joining the National Microschooling Center, you agree to abide by this Membership Policy. Violation of any of these terms may result in the revocation of membership privileges.

Intellectual Property:

Members agree to respect and protect the National Microschooling Center's intellectual property, ensuring that materials accessed through the Center are used solely for their own purposes and are not copied, shared, or distributed in any form without prior written permission from the Center.

Please direct any questions to info@microschoolingcenter.org.